

News from Justine

February 2011

Justine, husband Bill and 'Bear' enjoy a sunny February afternoon in front of their Fountain Hills home.

Sedona Arts Center Juried Members' Exhibition

Two of Justine's paintings were juried in the Sedona Juried Members' Exhibition. Her Milagro for the Heart and Ancient Doorways will be on display during the month of March.

Opening reception will be during First Friday, March 4.

Justine will demonstrate her Inks and Etchings, Saturday, March 5. Additionally she will be passing out Ampersand board samples during the demonstration.

Milagro for the Heart

Ancient Doorways

Welcome to 2011!

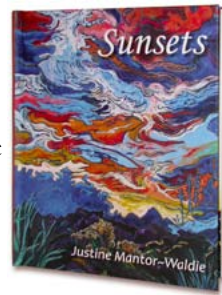

Hope your New Year is starting off with a bang!

Hidden in the Hills Studio Tour ...

was very successful with Justine selling 7 paintings and a copy of her new book Sunsets.

Sunsets the book is being printed in paperback and will be available for purchase at the Camelback Studio Tour. It will also be available in the near future online at the Blurb bookstore Website.

Look forward to seeing you during the Camelback tour.

Aspen Glow

At the Sedona Arts Center Justine had a major sale of her Aspen Glow painting to buyers from Florida.

Camelback Studio Tour and Sale – See Justine and her newest work

Friday • Saturday • Sunday – February 25, 26, 27 – 10 am to 5 pm

Crimson Sunset

Justine will have her artwork displayed at Studio 3. Six studio/homes will be open to visit and Justine's inks, oil pastels and prints will be on display.

She will be exhibiting with artists; Janet Campbell – fused glass, Dennis Weber – paper clay, and Marty White – gourd art

The neighborhood will provide visitors with a chance to see enchanting 50's and 60's vintage homes. All homes are easily accessible as a walking tour. Some homes have been decorated with the host artist's artwork and all have working studios. Many participating artists will be demonstrating their work. Additionally, refreshments will be served. See you there!

5602 East Vernon
Scottsdale, Arizona

Desert Backyard

The City of Fountain Hills now owns a second painting from Justine. Her watercolor, Desert Backyard is part of the permanent collection and is on view at the City Hall building.

The heavily textured painting is the result of the watercolor falling off the roof of the car and landing in the middle of Segundo Street where it lay for three days and was run over by many cars. Justine reworked the painting to incorporate the tire treads as part of the overall texture.

Workshops!

Treat yourself to a day painting with Justine

For those of you who have been waiting, Justine will be conducting two workshops in March and April at the Fountain View Village.

Inks & Etching

Date Saturday March 25, 2011

Time 10 am to 4 pm

Spend the day learning etching techniques on black Ampersand clayboard. Justine will demonstrate how to mix and apply the inks. Learn how to use a combination of metallic inks, regular acrylic inks, and liquid acrylic to create dazzling effects.

Details

Where Fountain View Village
16455 W. Avenue of the Fountains

Lunch Bring a bag lunch

Fee $70.00

Sign Up for one of these exciting workshops or get more details ...

» Call Justine 480.837.2681

» Email Justine justine.waldie@cox.net

You can also sign up when you see Justine at the

Camelback Studio Tour and Sale
February 25, 26, 27

Inks & Etching 2

Playing with Light and Volume

Date Saturday April 2, 2011

Time 10 am to 4 pm

Spend the day at play with iridescent inks, watercolor crayons, and alcohol washes as you create stunning effects on white clayboard ... In the afternoon turn day into dramatic night as you paint white clayboard with India Ink and experience new reflective possibilities.

Details

Where Fountain View Village
16455 W. Avenue of the Fountains

Lunch Bring a bag lunch

Fee $70.00

Justine Mantor~Waldie
12419 North Fountain Hills Boulevard
Fountain Hills, Arizona 85268

Justine